Craft Beer Alley

Craft Beer Alley is a new area within the Show which is dedicated to local produce and Craft Beer.

This exciting addition to the Show is designed to add 'beer' to the idea of a Food & Wine Show. With more than 400 craft breweries in Australia, and 17 launching in Queensland in 2017 alone, consumers are looking to learn about craft beer, local breweries, beer trends and beer and food matching.

Craft Beer Alley will be in a section of the food pavilion dedicated to beer education.

Curated by independent beer educator Matt Kirkegaard and featuring a Beer and Food Stage hosted by actor, brewer and foodie, Paul Mercurio.
